

Africa's Silent Epidemic

Every 30 seconds,
a baby is stillborn in Africa.

Nearly one million babies
lost each year
— most preventable.

This landmark Africa-led report reveals the burden, the drivers, and the solutions to prevent these deaths and strengthen health systems.

Scan to read the State of Africa's Stillbirths Report
Turn silence into action and accountability.

Every 30 seconds,
a baby is stillborn
in Africa.

Most of these deaths
are preventable.

The State of Africa's Stillbirths Report is the first Africa-wide stocktake exposing the scale of the crisis and the solutions to end it.

Scan to access the report
and join the call to action.

Stillbirth is Africa's silent epidemic

Nearly one million babies are lost each year — often during labour, often in health facilities, and often preventable.

The State of Africa's Stillbirths Report calls for a shift from silence to accountability.

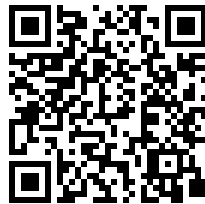

Scan to learn how Africa
can prevent five million losses by 2030.

The State of Africa's Stillbirths

Nearly one million babies are stillborn in Africa every year.

This landmark Africa-led report reveals the burden, the drivers, and the solutions to prevent these deaths and strengthen health systems.

Scan to explore the report and priority actions to 2030.

Every 30 seconds,
a baby is stillborn
in Africa.

Scan to explore the report and priority actions to 2030.

Most of these deaths are preventable.

Scan to read the State of Africa's Stillbirths Report and join the call to turn one million losses into action.

THE AGA KHAN UNIVERSITY

KAMUZU UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES

In support of

